

Mrs Anita Choudhary
President AFWWA(R) MC

Mrs Anita Choudhary joined the AFWWA as a Sangini in 1987 soon after she got married to, then, Flying Officer Shashiker Choudhary. She completed her formative education in Khandwa, Madhya Pradesh and went on to complete Bachelors in Science followed by a M.Sc. in Physics. As years progressed, she also completed Bachelors in Education degree which also propelled her to take up several teaching assignments along the course.

Over the last three decades, she has had an unwavering zeal to promote welfare in all aspects of life. She has spearheaded successful Education, Skilling and Counselling initiatives for empowering communities from within. From adoption of villages around AFS Hasimara for teenager counselling and skilling support, Kalaikunda for several education initiatives or creating a positive impact with the Umeed Vidya School program run in Chakeri. As President AFWWA(L) 5 BRD Sulur, her efforts have always uplifted the welfare in and beyond the campus, holistic counselling and management across all AFWWA initiatives was the key initiative. She was Executive Committee Member in SAC and Air HQ. She has also represented the country internationally in Moscow, Russian Federation, being part of the Diplomatic Defense Services associations and working as a Treasurer – together with representatives from across the world to raise charities for various causes.

Mrs Anita Choudhary is a strong proponent on cleaner environmental practices to be adopted for the Earth's sustainable future. Plantation drives, avoiding Single Use Plastics, Waste Management, Water Harvesting as well as clean energy initiatives are key focus areas. On the personal front – she is blessed with a daughter and a son. Her daughter - Apurva is currently working in the USA in Marketing Technology space and is married and her son - Abhas is working in the Netherlands after recently completing his Master's degree in Aerospace. Anita is a keen observer of life and values compassion and perseverance as great virtues. She enjoys gardening and landscaping and interior decoration, aside from being a good hostess.
