

Mrs Ambika Singh
President AFWWA (R) SAC

Mrs Ambika Singh has been actively associated with the Air Force Wives Welfare Association (AFWWA) since her marriage to Air Marshal Manavendra Singh in 1987.

A post graduate in English, she also holds a Bachelor degree in Education and also is a certified Cyber Crime Intervention Officer. She has over two decades of teaching experience and has also received many awards and accolades for the same. She bid adieu to her teaching career when she had to take over as President AFWWA at Air Force Station New Delhi and took active part in managing various AFWWA-run institutions during her tenure. Thereafter at Shillong and Nagpur she was instrumental in promoting health and welfare measures for the Sanginis including implementation of vocational training courses, self defence classes and yoga training. She has served as Secretary AFWWA Central, Executive Committee Member AFWWA at HQ EAC, HQ MC, Air HQ and also held the appointment of Vice President AFWWA (R) at HQ SAC.

Apart from her academic and professional engagements, Mrs Ambika Singh is an avid reader and fitness enthusiast who keeps herself updated on latest trends in tech & health.

On family front she is blessed with two sons, elder son is a Senior Manager in a MNC and younger one is a Flying Instructor in the IAF.