

President AFWWA
Mrs Asha Bhadauria

Mrs Asha Bhadauria was born on 03 Oct at Agra. She is a Post Graduate from Agra University. She is married to Air Chief Marshal Rakesh Kumar Singh Bhadauria PVSM AVSM VM ADC, Chief of the Air Staff since Nov 1986. Having accompanied her spouse on all his assignments within India and abroad, Mrs Asha has been an active member of AFWWA and has participated keenly in multifarious activities of the Association at all levels. She has been President AFWWA (Local) of a premier air base in South Western Air Command, President AFWWA (Regional) at Southern Air Command & Training Command as well as Vice President AFWWA prior to her assuming charge as President AFWWA on 30 Sep 2019.

Mrs Asha is passionate about improving quality of life of Sanginis through empowerment and education. She has also been a strong proponent of welfare through community participation. She has had the rich experience of being a member of International Women Association while at Moscow and has spearheaded many welfare activities undertaken by Indian Embassy.

Mrs Asha has a great zest for life. Being an avid artist, with a flair for interior designing, painting and gardening, she has dedicated her time towards sustainable art and environment friendly living.

Mrs Asha and Air Chief Marshal Bhadauria are blessed with a daughter Sonali and a son Saurav who are both pilots.